“CHIC LE FREAK”

‘CHIC LE FREAK’ COLLECTION - AW20

Each item in ‘Chic Le Freak’ Collection is named using a song title from the era of the famous New York super club ‘Studio 54’. Opened is 1977, the club was open for less than three years during which legends were made. Andy Warhol, Yves Saint Laurent, Grace Jones, Mick & Bianca Jagger, Elizabeth Taylor, Al Pacino, Jerry Hall, Debbie Harry, to name a few, were all regulars.

The collection aims to capture some of the spirit of the time through fun, colourful designs with a slight retro twist. The exlusive fabric patterns were specially commissioned from fabric designer Amelia Graham. A theme of vinyl LP’s runs through both the print design and presentation of the garments.

Our models, Gaby & Gigi, were photographed on top of a revolving turntable and all images were created to a Studio 54 playlist.

Host & Var is a committed sustainable brand focused on delivering high quality products made from beautiful organic, vegan, biodegradable fabrics.
